al - Office of Legislative Counsel  ay - 19 March 1976  LEGISLATION Called J. C. Argetsinge te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously oppositing up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and tha committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record prosition. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give objection full consideration.
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give
te Judiciary Committee staff, regarding the referral of S. Res. 400 to Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record position. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give Committee. Argetsinger said the Committee was unanimously opposition up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record prosition. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give ving up any oversight of FBI to a new intelligence committee, and that committee had sought the referral of the resolution in order to record prosition. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give pposition. Argetsinger doubted that the Committee would look at any issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give issues in the resolution, but he felt the Rules Committee would give -

	urnal - Offi	ce of Legislat	ive Counsel		Page 5
Tu	iesday – 23 j	March 1976		·	# Wg -
	20.			Called Duke Sho	ort. Senate
	diciary Subc	committee on and 16 April		staff, and tentativ re	presentative	s of the Cana	dian Broadcasting	g Company and pe	rhaps others
Sh	ort that	will not ac		00 to tape the inte
Lite	e Canadians.	DHOLL WILL C	neck tills out and	iet me know.
				·
				· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	· ·
		·	COMPIDENT

	pproved For Release	e 2004/10/12 : CIA-RDP78N	M02660R000300080031-4
Journal - Thursday	- Office of Legis: y - 25 March 197	lative Counsel	Page 2
5 Minority		LEGISLATIO Judiciary Committee	N Called J. C. Argets, regarding the Commi	inge action on	1 S. Res. 400. A	argetsinger said the C	ommittee had a meetin	g tha morning, to the Ru	, but would proba iles Committee.	bly need and ask for a At this point it appea	more time to report S. ars the Committee will	Res that intel	lligence activities	s of the FBI be concur	rrently overseen by the	Jud only issu	roposed intellige the Judiciary (	ence committee. He a Committee was consid-	also reiterated that this	wa o i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i	